Although her education and career focused on teaching and reading, art was and is her passion. Her website provides information about her formal and informal art studies and some of the permanent collections that include her work. She is a watercolor artist whose work has been exhibited in a number of galleries in Maine, Canada, Florida (where she now winters) and Bermuda. Her work is also on exhibit (on weekends in the summer and early fall) in her Round the Corner Art Gallery, located on Orrs Island. She combines her gifts of teaching and painting to present workshops for both adults and children in both Maine and Florida.
