The Life Writing Class, John Patrick Grace, Publishers Place, 2002, 0967605172, 9780967605173, . The magic of 18 people coming together in a creative synergy in the Life Writing Tutorial at the Huntington, West Virginia, Museum of Art bubbled over into this book of true-life tales, a number of which are headed for publication as whole books on their own. Here you will find stories of training to be an Olympic figureskater on an isolated windswept pond; of doing a delirious dance on the docks as an antidote to a crushing marital separation; of trembling in bed, waiting for a Soviet nuclear attack during the Cuban Missile Crisis; of Ndlazi the witch doctor operating out of a smoke-darkened hut in South Africa; of being chased by a cherry-red gobbler turkey; of visiting the cell in a crumbling shut-down prison where the writer's grandfather had died; and considerably more. For men and women of all ages who aspire to be published, THE LIFE WRITING CLASS is a welcome ray of inspiration -- and hope!.
