

Conveyancing, Nuala Casey, Gabriel Brennan, Oxford University Press, 2010, 0199578885, 9780199578887, 874 pages. Conveyancing is designed for trainee solicitors studying Applied Land Law on the Professional Practice Course in Ireland, and will also be of benefit to practitioners. The fifth edition comes at a time of major reform and modernization in the area of land law and conveyancing; the text has been fully revised and updated to include the Land and Conveyancing Law Reform Act 2009 and other legislative changes, new practice directions, developments in property registration, and changes in taxation including eStamping and VAT. Forthcoming reforms are also considered. Published in two volumes, the fifth edition features updated sample documentation and precedents to illustrate the procedural aspects of conveyancing. The text provides complete coverage of all the knowledge needed when practicing conveyancing, including the legal concept of property and the protection, acquisition, and movement of proprietary interests. The principles of conveyancing practice are clearly explained, making this an essential text for both trainees and practitioners..
