In Pioneer Journal: A Modern-Day Journey to an Unknown World, the sequel to Flight Lessons: A Young Couple's First Journeys Toward Heaven, author Michael Hall shares an intimate, first-person view of the struggles of a "nineties" family who felt drawn - compelled - to leave behind what they had been bought up to value in their search for an intangible ideal.

Michael Hall gave up a successful law practice in Long Island, New York to write and share the incredible personal and spiritual journeys depicted in Flight Lessons. After writing and publishing FLight Lessons and its sequel, Pioneer Journal, and competing two national lecture and book-signing tours, he produced and hosted "Meet the Masters" television program.
