

Under a Raging Moon, Frank Zafiro, Wolfmont Publishing, 2006, 0977840212, 9780977840212, 308 pages. Zafiro has created a gritty, realistic world out of his own years of experience as a law enforcement officer. In "Under a Raging Moon," a serial gunman is plaguing River City, Washington, and becoming progressively more dangerous and violent. The police are eager to stop him, but internal politics and fate hamper the investigation and capture. And, the police officers themselves are dealing with their own personal demons and crises, which adds both tension and humanity to the mix. This intriguing, exciting and compelling read is sure to keep you turning pages..
