Store Description: Archives Books, Inc. is a family owned and operated company, established in 1989 in Edmond, OK, which has been selling books locally and online for more than 13 years. Our first online sale was in 1995, being one of the first book dealers to sell used books online. Being on the ground floor of the online used book business, we have acquired a rare knowledge of the industry that helps us provide an unmatched customer service experience. In addition to our online listings, we have a brick and mortar store located in Edmond, Oklahoma at 1914 E. 2nd Street. We buy and sell at this location Monday thru Saturday, 10am-6pm. We are currently adding thousands of new titles to our online inventory each month and sell hundreds of books each day, so inventory is always changing and the selection is always different. What began in 1989 has turned out to be one of Oklahoma's finest used bookstores and continues to be an excellent provider of used books worldwide.

This 145 page cookbook is a collection of the author's easiest and best recipes she's collected over the last 25 years. Her style is simple yet elegant. Herbs and spices or yummy sauces take an ordinary recipe and make it extraordinary. This cookbook also includes lots of delicious wild game recipes. Home cooked meals are made quick and easy.
