

Green Hand

A novel from the author of Lightly Poached

Lillian Beckwith

Green Hand, Lillian Beckwith, House of Stratus, 2002, 0755102746, 9780755102747, 234 pages. A climbing holiday has brought David Jones to the West Coast of Scotland. Fate has introduced him to Donald. As the days grow into weeks, he finds that fishing for lobster and herring is unlike anything he has done before. As he progresses from being a Green Hand to a practised fisherman, David takes to his new life with relish. The days of his strict chapel-going home in Wales are far behind him. Fishing has become his one obsession. This is as amusing and sympathetic novel..
