

WHAT ARE THEY SAYING ABOUT Golden Priest, Wooden Chalice?

"No wonder some people are already saying 'Thank God I've been alive while John Paul II and Benedict XVI were Pope and Father Tim Norris was Parish Priest of Geebung.' From the village Mass Rock he knew as a child in Ireland to his commentaries on the challenges we face in 21st century Australia, Golden Priest, Wooden Chalice is full of substance and interest. A most enjoyable read."

George Cardinal Pell, Archbishop of Sydney

"Having met him, I can well understand the great affection in which he is held in his community. Religious leaders, like Father Tim Norris, make an important contribution to the community."

John Howard, Prime Minister

"This is great stuff. Father Tim Norris's story reminds us that the Christian lives with zest, that the faith is strength, combative and charitable. Like this book, it is never dull."

Father Tom Boland, author of James Duhig

"What a character Father Norris is! His book is an entertaining journey from Ireland to his parish in Geebung - 'that place with the queer name you should change'. A great read."

Wayne Swan, Shadow Treasurer and Member for Lilley
