Carrington House takes place in a prestigious New England boarding school. Through a suspenseful chain of events, hazing and harassment give rise to a personal vendetta between students. One particularly nonconforming student is unable to cope with the abuse and strikes back by attempting to poison the seniors. His action attracts the attention of the nation's top pathologists, attention undesired by the school.

Carrington House is such a gripping book! I randomly purchased it based on other Amazon reviews and to say the least it proved to be a successful gamble. Start to finish I read through this book in just two days. I thoroughly enjoyed reading Carrington House and hope to see more of Roberts' work. I recommend this book for leisure reading of the utmost degree.
