What a book! I couldn't believe the deceit and fraud committed upon Mike Tyson by his so called "family". No one could have this bird's eye view of the live of Mike Tyson like Rudy, his personal bodyguard for over five years. Some of the evidence Rudy has regarding Tyson's rape case is staggering. I challenge anyone who thinks Mike Tyson is a rapist to read this book. I guarantee you will have doubts regarding his guilt. Rudy does a fantastic job of describing the ins and outs of the bodyguard business, fanatic live of "Iron Mike".

As a person who witnessed firsthand a lot of the things that took place during the Tyson era and his association with Don King, Rudy's interpretation is exact and provides an insight most people could only imagine. Definitely one of the best books published about all the shenanigans that took place at DKP and with Mike Tyson. Excellent read.

The imagination is something else... the part (in your book) where you left out at wee hours in the morning looking for a cab to get over the garage to collect the luxury vehicle to go to the airport to pick up your first fare [Iron Mike], I wished I had been driving by in da hood, saw you cause we grew up together...held a mutual secret crush, and "I" was the one that picked you up [with no available cab in sight] and drove you to the garage. ...yeah, just wanted to insert myself in your magical (in that reading moment) story just that bad. blushing
