John grew up in a strict Jewish family and became a fisherman in his father Zebedee's fleet. He had a strong, loving family and a bright future but felt something was missing in his life. When a mysterious desert preacher began baptizing pilgrims in the Jordan River, John left home, determined to begin his search for the truth — the Infinite. He became a disciple of John the Baptist, who pointed out the Coming One, Jesus, and instructed John to follow him. The gospel comes alive when seen through the eyes of John...
