Junior picture book. "It was in New Zealand during the spring of 1861 that a young bushman, Bill Bennett, stopped by a tumbling mountain river to fill his water bottle. Out of the corner of his eye he noticed a small, furry bear sitting on a rock, crying -â€" The story of a New Zealand bushman who befriends the creatures in the bush and teaches them that life should be fun, and that if we really wish it, we can make our dreams come true.
