In 2004, Mike founded O'Keefe Motor Sports, Inc. (OMS Superstore), eventually growing it into the largest database of aftermarket automotive components available for online purchase in the world. Currently, aside from his position at Expert Business Advice, LLC, Mike is President of Pinpoint Holdings Group, Inc. and Vice President of Marketing for Bracemasters International, LLC. At Pinpoint, Mike's focus is building a strong base for understanding the global marketplace. He also plays a key role in facilitating the logistics of the commercial lighting branch of the company, bridging between Pinpoint's office in Wuxi, China, and their commercial clients-hotel chains such as Gaylord Palms, Ritz Carlton, Marriott, Mohegan Sun and Isle of Capri. Recently, Mike's passion and talents for cutting-edge business techniques and practices have led to the exponential growth of Bracemasters. By developing web-based marketing strategies and E-commerce initiatives, as well as formatting online documents that enabled the company to reach a vast number of current and potential patient-customers, Mike increased Bracemasters' website viewership by 17,000% in two years. Originally from Delavan, Wisconsin, Mike now lives in Orlando, Florida. He is a regular contributor to www.expertbusiness.com. His motto: "Rome did not create a great empire by having meetings; they did it by killing all those who opposed them."

Edward T. Dickinson, MD, NREMT P, FACEP, is currently Assistant Professor and Director of EMS Field Operations in the Department of Emergency Medicine of the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine in Philadelphia. He is currently Medical Director of the Malvern Fire Company, the Berwyn Fire Company, and the Township of Haverford paramedics in Pennsylvania. He is a residency-trained, board-certified emergency medicine physician who is a Fellow of the American College of Emergency Physicians.

He began his career in emergency services in 1979 as a firefighter-EMT in upstate New York. As a volunteer firefighter, he served as a company officer, assistant chief, and training officer. In 1985, he was the first volunteer firefighter in the United States to receive the top award for heroism from the "Firehouse Magazine" Heroism and Community Awards program in recognition of his rescue of two elderly women trapped in a house fire.

Dr. Dickinson has remained active in fire service and EMS for the past 25 years. He frequently rides with EMS units and has maintained his certification as a National Registry EMT-Paramedic. He has served as medical editor for numerous Brady EMT -B and First Responder texts and is the author of "Fire Service Emergency Care," and co-author of Emergency Care-Fire Services Edition, EMT-B textbooks.

"Michael A. Wieder, MS, CFPS, MIFireE," is the Assistant Director at Fire Protection Publications, headquarters for the International Fire Service Training Association (IFSTA), at Oklahoma State University in Stillwater, Oklahoma. He has written or edited over two dozen books and 100 periodical articles. Mr. Wieder holds an Associate Degree in FireTechnology from Northampton Community College in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. He also holds a Bachelor's Degree in Fire Protection and Safety Engineering Technology and a Master's Degree in Occupational and Adult Education from Oklahoma State University. A Certified Fire Protection Specialist and a member of the Institution of Fire Engineers, he is a member of the National Fire Protection Association's Fire Fighter Professional Qualifications (NFPA 1001) and Fire Service Training committees, serves as secretary of the National Fire Service Incident Management System Consortium, and is IFSTA's representative to the National Volunteer Fire Council (NVFC). He is a contributing editor to "Firehouse"(R) "Magazine" and "The Pennsylvania Fireman." He maintains a very active fire service lecture and legal consultation workload.
