On offer is this collectible and very hard to find hardcover history of modern Hungary by Anna Ambrosy. Beginning in 1914 when the country was part of the Dual Monarchy of Austria-Hungary, A Brave Nation follows the trials of a country caught between the forces of east and west - independence; dictatorship; war; subjugation by the Soviets; the 1956 revolt; the collapse of the eastern block and emergence of today's state are all dealt with in a narrative which emphasises the social and political life of the country. Complete with great illustrations, maps etc. Normally expensive to get whatever its condition, this book is brand new in shrinkwrap (illustration is a scan of the actual item on offer).

Shipping: All postage is based on actual Australia Post costs plus $2 for handling & materials for each package sent (see combined postage below). If you require registered post add $3 to the listed rates - I recommend that you do this as I am not responsible for the actions of the Post Office & by bidding you are agreeing that I am not liable for items lost or damaged in shipping. Overseas bidders should contact me for rates. If you wish to pick up the goods (from Katoomba, NSW) rather than pay for shipping please let me know via email before paying & it can be arranged, there will be no charge for this so long as I don't have to make any particularly special arrangements - if I do then a $2 handling charge applies. Similarly, I work in Sydney on some week days & the items can be picked up, by prior arrangement either in the CBD or on the train line between Central & Katoomba - there is a $2 handling charge for this. Since postage charges can vary according to location, how good a mood the Post Office Clerk is in when weighing the item etc, if it turns out that cost was significantly lower than I charged I will contact the buyer to inform them that they will have a postage discount on the next item they win from me.

Combined Postage: At the bottom of the item description I list the approximate weight of the item for sale & also the capacity of the envelope/post pack etc on which I've based my postage charges. As noted above I charge a per package handling fee, not per item. If you win multiple items & they will all fit into the listed envelope then that is exactly the amount you will pay for shipping - e.g. if the first item won is listed as 1kg & I am sending it in a 3kg envelope then you know that you can safely bid on another 1.5 kg or so without having to pay the listed postage cost of those items. Of course if I have to get a larger than quoted envelope you will pay the cost of that plus the $2 handling fee. Remember that the weights listed are approximate & that packaging/bubble wrap etc can add considerably to the weight of the package and also that the size of the item might well be more important than its weight as well. Please contact me if you are unsure of any of this.

Items must be paid for and/or email contact made within three days of purchase or the item will be offered to the next highest bidder or relisted. Refunds are generally not given on shrink-wrapped items which have been opened & are otherwise only given in cases where the item description is incorrect - postage costs will not usually be refunded.. However, in all cases where there is a problem, please contact me & we can discuss.

By clicking Confirm bid, you are committing to buy this item from the seller if you are the winning bidder and have read and agreed to the Global Shipping Program terms and conditions - opens in a new window or tab. Import charges previously quoted are subject to change if you increase your maximum bid amount.
