The European Economy Between the Wars, , Charles H. Feinstein, Peter Temin, Gianni Toniolo, Oxford University Press, Incorporated, 1997, 019877480X, 9780198774808, 233 pages. The European Economy Between the Wars provides an authoritative economic history of Europe in the inter-war period. Placing the Great Depression of 1929-33 and the associated financial crisis at the center of the narrative, the authors comprehensively examine the lead-up to and the consequences of the depression and recovery. The basic approach in this textbook is chronological, and the style is clear and straightforward, accessible to students in a range of disciplines..
